ROTHWELL
RECEPTION
AT AINAHAUThe drawing rooms of the old Cleghorn residence at Ainau, with their pleasant memories of Princess Kalulani, who once graced them as the mistress of the manse, were filled last night with music, flowers and a fashionable throng in honor of Miss May Buchly of Berkeley, as the guest of honors of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rothwell.
The fine old residence with its surroundings of parked grounds, was gay with laughter and mirth, and throughout the brilliantly illuminated house and grounds everything wore a festive air. The reception accorded Miss Buchly by Mr. and Mrs. Rothwell marked the first time that the main residence of Ainau had been given over to such a function since the Princess Kalulani departed thence forever.The two drawing rooms, divided only by fluted pillars and a gridded archway, were used for dancing. The decorations therein, simple in arrangement, were most effective. At the foot of each pillar were potted fan palms, while in one corner, banded high upon a table, were stalks of the white striped bamboo, cherry hibiscus, ferns and feathery palms. The hallway and lanais were similarly treated. The whole decorative scheme being artistically carried out. Behind a curtain of palms and ferns a quintet of Hawaiians played and sang native melodies, to which the guests tripped away in the deus tempo or whirled through the mazes of the waltz.The guests were received upon the lanai and at the entrance to the hallway by Mrs. J. G. Rothwell, who was assisted by Mrs. W. C. Peacock and Mrs. E. K. Freeth, who in turn introduced them to Miss Buchly. Mrs. Rothwell was a charming hostess in a handsome gown of Japanese gauze, embroidered with forget-me-nots, splashed here and there, over white silk. Miss Buchly wore a white fine gown over silk, the bodice and skirt finished with fine tucks.The dancing began at 9 o'clock, the first number being led by Prince and Princess Kawanakoa. The inland floor was admirably adapted to dancing and the evening was pleasantly spent by the guests. During the intervals between dances, champagne punch was served. Toward midnight a collation of salads, sandwiches, cake and wine was set in the small rooms and lanais opening into the drawing room.The list of invited guests was as follows: Miss May Buchly, Dr. and Mrs.
Humphris, Dr. and Mrs. Philip Frear, Prince and Princess Kawanakoa, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Graham, Mr. and Mrs.

Pills.When an incident like the following occurs here at home it is bound to carry weight with our readers. The public statement of a reputable citizen living in this city leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.Mr. James C. Stevens, of this city, informs us: "I was troubled with an ache in the small of my back for a long time, and such was the condition of things until I tried some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, which I obtained at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. A short treatment gave me the desired relief, and I am satisfied that they are a good remedy for backache and deserve to be recommended."Mr. Stevens is one of our own citizens. Is not such testimony stronger than that of someone living in America?Does your back or side ache so that it is hard to stand straight? Do you have headaches, nervousness, frequent thirst, hot, dry skin, or shortness of sleep? Are your eyelids distended or breath? Evil forebodings, or unsettled
feet and ankles swollen and have you lost flesh? Are the secretions from the kidneys thick, dark colored, and do they deposit a sediment? Kidney disease is insidious and if you leave any of these symptoms you should treat them at once. Delay may mean you can't be cured.Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and store keepers at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.The Future of Hawaii.The New York Commercial prints an interview with W. T. Lloyd, of San Francisco, who says: "In the excitement of the Philippines, Cuba and Porto Rico, it seems Americans have overlooked the Hawaiian Islands. Yet these new possessions of ours are enormously rich. As San Francisco had the trade of the Islands before annexation there has not been much said about them, as San Francisco was too deeply interested in the Philippines. Now, however, interest is turning to Hawaii and already many Americans have gone there, and as soon as they become more familiar there will be thousands of others. The climate is superb; and there are plenty of chances for investment. The Islands need a cable to bring them into communication with the outside world. A cable would put the Islands up to date and be worth millionsPACIFIC IMPORT CO.*BEWITCHING IDEAS IN
